THE GHOSTS OF ONIGAWA

“Don’t go... stay with me...”

“Man rules now where They ruled once; They shall soon rule where man rules now. After summer is winter, and after winter summer. They wait patient and potent, for here shall They reign again.”

—H. P. Lovecraft, The Dunwich Horror

The Ghosts of Onigawa Investigator Expansion contains a new set of investigators and player cards that can be used to build or enhance investigator decks for The Ghosts of Onigawa Campaign Expansion or any other Arkham Horror: The Card Game scenario or campaign.

The cards in The Ghosts of Onigawa Investigator Expansion can be identified by this symbol before each card’s collector number:

Return to The Ghosts of Onigawa

This expansion contains several cards from the supplemental set Return to The Ghosts of Onigawa, which may optionally be incorporated into the original investigator expansion. The cards in Return to The Ghosts of Onigawa can be identified by this symbol before each card’s collector number:

New Keywords

Echo X

Echo X is a new keyword that appears on some events in this expansion. Cards with Echo X typically have the Tandem trait to indicate they utilize this keyword.

When a card with Echo X enters its owner’s discard pile after being played, each other investigator in the game gains the ability to play that card from its owner’s discard pile, as if it were in their hand, X times each, before the round in which the card was originally played ends. At the end of each round, all instances of Echo X expire.

When playing Echo X cards from other investigators’ discard piles, you must pay any resource or action costs that would be required to play that card if it was in your hand. You may never play a card with Echo X from your own discard pile. Other investigators may not commit cards with Echo X from their owners’ discard piles to skill tests, unless some other game effect allows them to do so.

The Echo X value of an individual card can never “stack” with itself. If another investigator plays a card with Echo X from your discard pile, you do not gain the ability to play it again from your own discard pile. If you play a card with Echo X, return it from the discard pile to your hand via some other game effect, and then play it again during the same round, other investigators may only play it from your discard pile X times that round.

Echo X only resolves if a card has been played: if a card with Echo X enters your discard pile for any reason other than having been played, its Echo X keyword is not triggered and other investigators may not play it.
